

Aberdeen Harbour Hong Kong is named in memory of George Hamilton-Gordon, 4th Earl of Aberdeen, former Prime Minister of the United Kingdom (1852-1855) and former Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs (1841-1846).

Aberdeen Harbour Hong Kong is famous for its floating village and floating seafood restaurants.

To this day, Aberdeen Harbour Hong Kong is the epicentre of Hong Kong thriving seafood industry and local fishing fleet.

Hong Kong is known for its Cantonese style cuisine and fresh seafood from Aberdeen Harbour. It's this wonderful combination that we love when visiting Hong Kong.

Aberdeen is a very appropriate name for our Restaurant because just like Aberdeen Harbour Hong Kong. Our restaurant prides itself on the absolute freshness quality sustainable seafood and you will always find a nod to Hong Kong's Cantonese style cuisine but with a modern twist to elevate your dining experience.

We hope you enjoy your dining experience and feel you have been transported to Aberdeen Harbour Hong Kong without leaving Haberfield Sydney Australia.
